CLASS WILL

We, the Seniors of the graduating class of 1959, being of sound mind and body, do hereby make this our last will and testament given on the first day of May, in the year of our Lord, 1959.

JUDY PELSTER wills her diary to anyone who has courage to read it and her flirting ability to Kathy Lou.

LORRAINE MEAD wills her ability to find information in the library to the freshman class and her ability to get along with teachers to anyone who needs it.

STUART BANCROFT wills his ability to stay out of trouble to Butch Westerhoff and his ability to talk fast and long to anyone who can use it.

GARY HARRIS wills his quick temper to anybody who wants it and his basketball ability to Phillip Frerichs.

LLOYD KETTELER wills his Chevy to anyone who can keep it running and his ability to learn football fast to Tom Eckert.

MARJORIE BUCK wills her slimness to Mary Sue Townley and her ability to have fun on weekends to Judy Mead.

CAROL WINKELMAN wills her ability to play volleyball to Audrey Kragel and her arguing ability to Joey Van Anne.

FAYE HARMS wills her ability to flunk in Physics to Jerry McRoberts and her naturally curly hair to Mary Boyer.

RON WARREN wills his straight F's to Davy Wessels and his extra pounds to Jim White.

JERRY LINDSEY wills his intense studying ability to Jerry Flora and his ability to remember jokes to Leslie Flohr.

ELLEN HOLDEN wills her quick temper to Sandra Miller and her extra pounds to Tommy Eckert.

LYLE GRAFF wills his ability to get dates to Butch Westerhoff and his ability to disrupt classes to Jerry Flora.

LEON GILLESPIE wills his acting ability to Lonnie Lessman and his football ability to Davy Wessels.

VERNON JOBMAN wills his ability in sports to Leslie Flohr and his ability to high jump to Jerry McRoberts, who doesn't need it.

TOM LINDSEY wills his twin brother to anyone who can get along with him, and his curly hair to Jack Tyler.

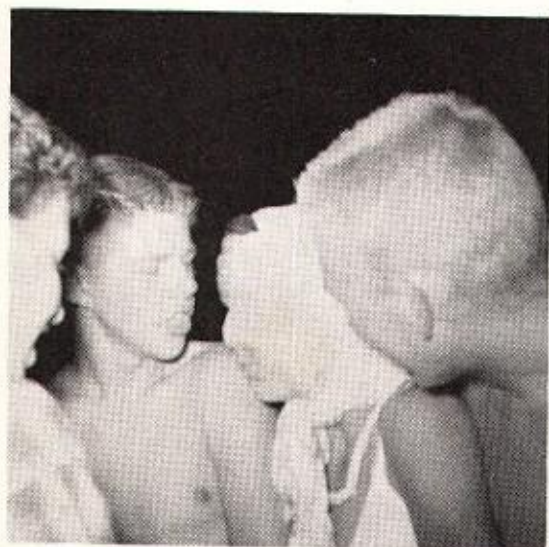

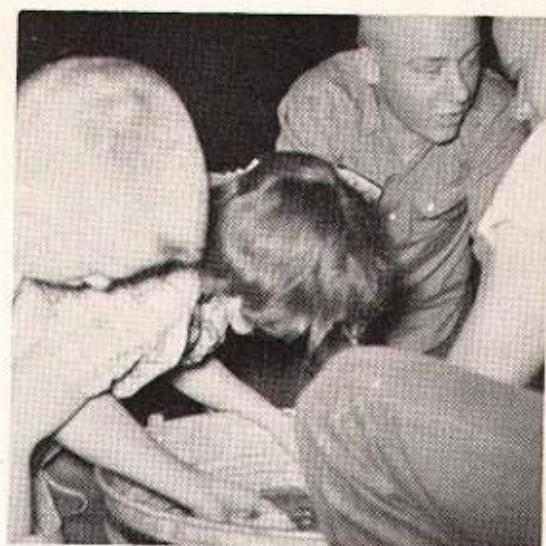

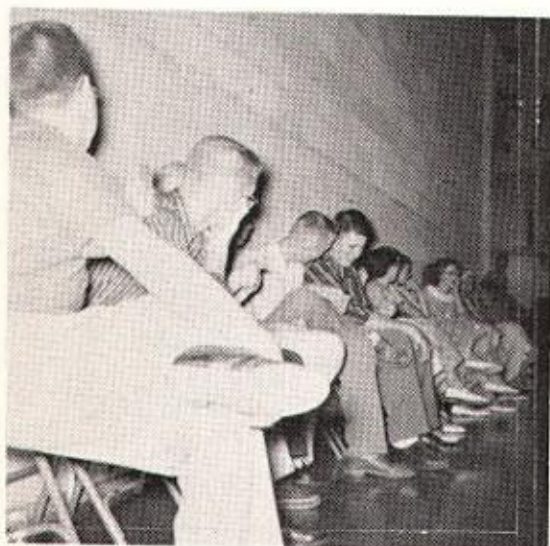

With our parting words, we do hereby constitute and appoint Mr. Jim G. Buterbaugh, principal of this aforementioned school, sole executor of this. Our last will and testament.

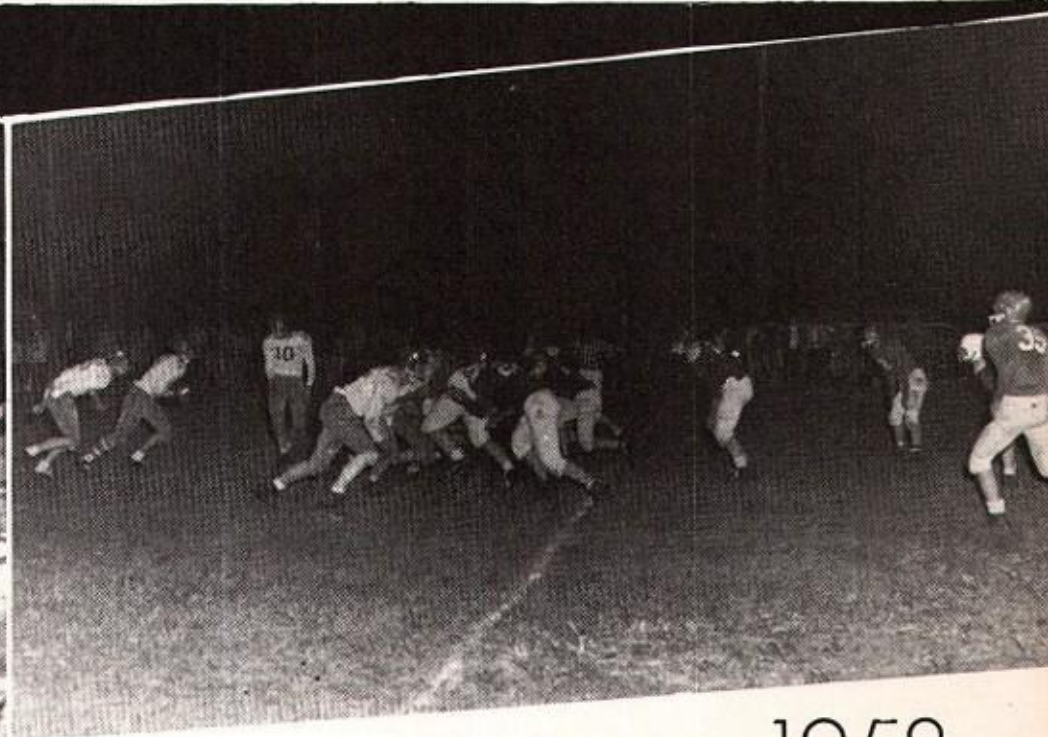

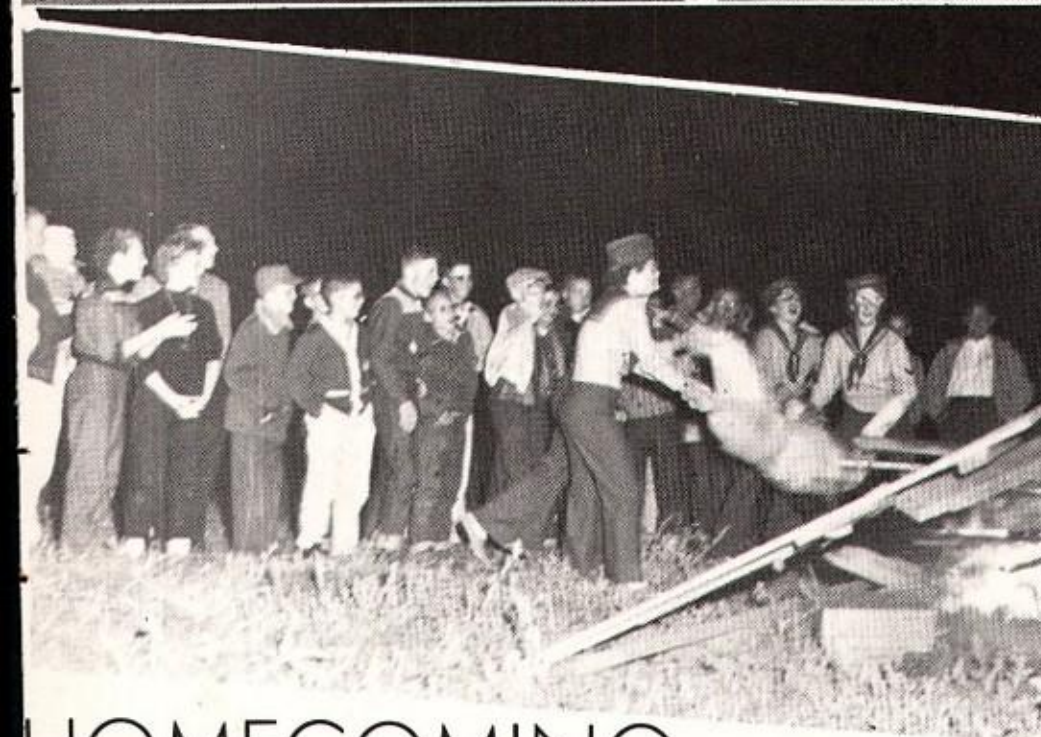

FRESHMAN INITIATION

Freshman Initiation was held Friday, September 12, 1958. Both the Seniors and Freshmen had a fun-filled day. The girls wore heavy overcoats with a hip boot on one foot and a big bandage on the other. The greenhorns also had thirty suckers braided in their hair. The boys were decked out in a two-piece bathing suit with high heels and shoe boxes on their feet. Both girls and boys carried a bucket of popcorn and fudge for the Seniors.

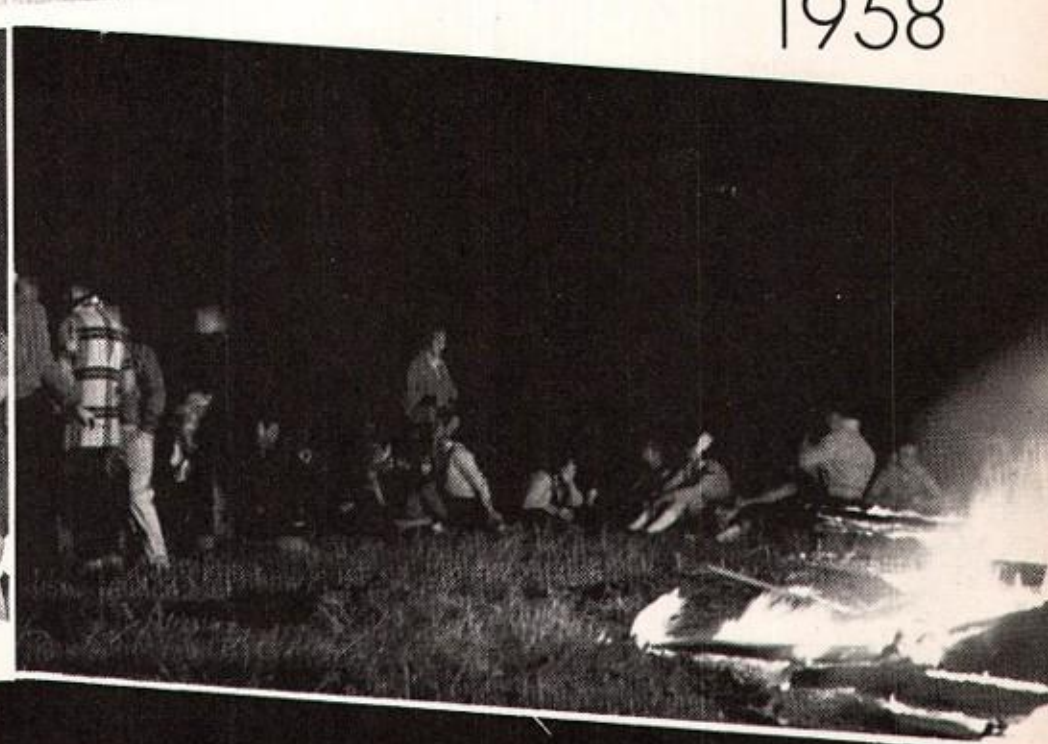

A lunch, just for the Freshmen, was served out on the east side of the school. Later in the evening a dance was held for all high school students. Everyone danced to K-D-A-L musical sounds. The evening was climaxed with punch and cookies in the home-ec room.

HOMECOMING 1958

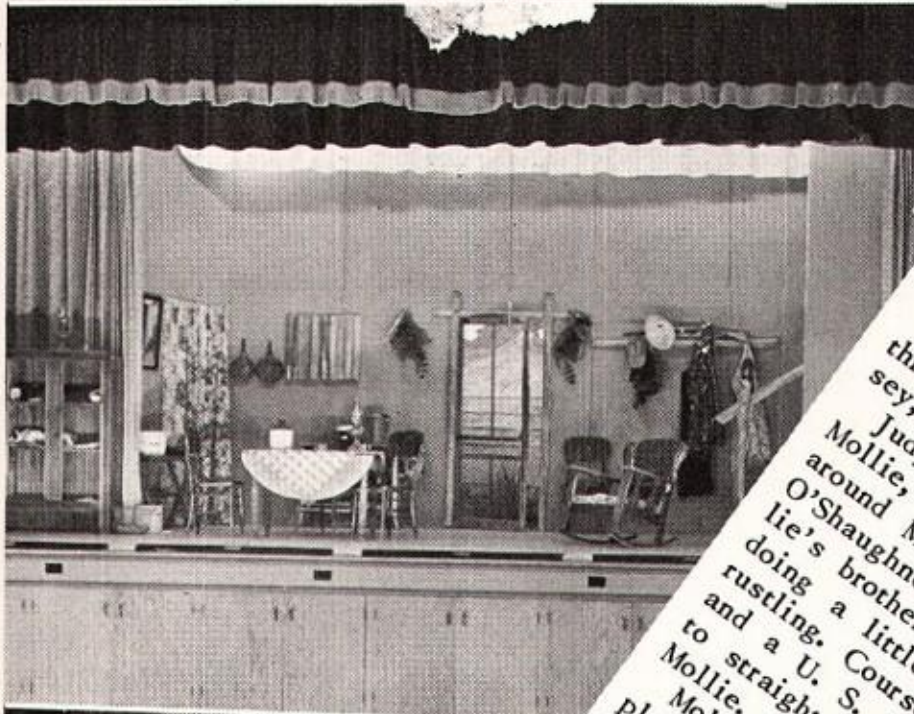

Play Successful

Dalton high school seniors cast in the parts of the play "Mollie O'Shaughnessy" pleased a near-capacity audience in the school auditorium Monday evening.

The youngsters all turned in creditable performances, with stage settings and scenery approaching professional standards.

The director, Jim Buterbaugh, who is also the high school principal, deserves considerable credit for the fine job his performers did.

By J. FRED THOMPSON

Dalton high school seniors have been making like wild west for the past week, with plenty of six-guns, boots and ten-gallon hats.

The cowboy (and girl) bit is to publicize the senior play, due for staging the next Monday night at 7:30 in the Dalton school auditorium.

Tickets are going at six bits for buckaroos and a quarter for kids.

It's a rootin', tootin' western in three acts, "Mollie O'Shaughnessy."

Judy Pelster is the star. She's around herself. The plot centers O'Shaughnessy, along with Mollie's brother, who is suspected of doing a little extra-curricular cow rustling. A U. S. Marshall comes along and a U. S. Marshall comes along to straighten things out and marry Mollie.

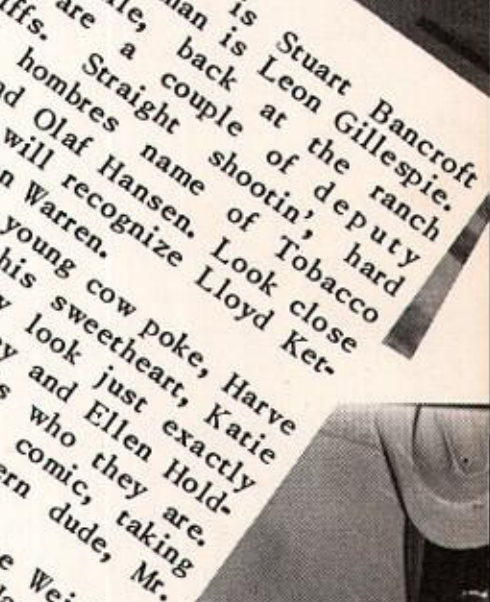

Mollie's no-good brother, Jed, is played by Tom Lindsay; Sheriff

O'Shaughnessy is Stuart Bancroft and the lawman is Leon Gillespie. Meanwhile, back at the ranch there are a couple of deputy Sheriffs. Straight shootin', hard ridin' hombres name of Tobacco Pete and Olaf Hansen. Look close and you will recognize Lloyd Ketler and Ron Warren.

There's a young cow poke, Harve Deitrich and his sweetheart, Katie Richmond. They look just exactly like Jerry Lindsey and Ellen Hold-en. In fact, that's who they are. Lyle Graff is the comic, taking the part of an eastern dude, Mr. Fred Beamis.

If you want to see the Weisheimer girls, look for Faye Harms and Mrs. Buck. Carol Winkelman as Mrs. Loftus and Loraine Mead as Jim Buterbaugh is directing the play and he has not only done a masterful job as a director, he has a surprise to spring in the sound department. The drama will come alive with stereophonic sound.

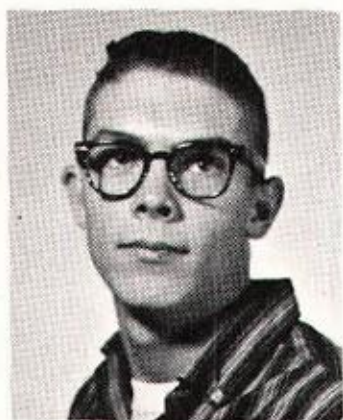

Now, don't you miss this here drama, pardner.

This year, KDAL, Dalton's educational radio station, has been primarily operating into a speaker system within the school. KDAL personell broadcast all the local basketball games.

To you, the patrons of this community, we dedicate this school annual. It is with full realization that such a recognition is a small tribute, but it is one that originates in the heart.

Your willing and unselfish support in all phases of school life creates a fertile atmosphere for students that are eager for learning. Likewise, it inspires teachers to consider every problem a challenge.

Your continued smiles, words of appreciation, or kind deeds for both pupils and teachers give each a new lease on life and the inspiration to conquer life's obstacles.

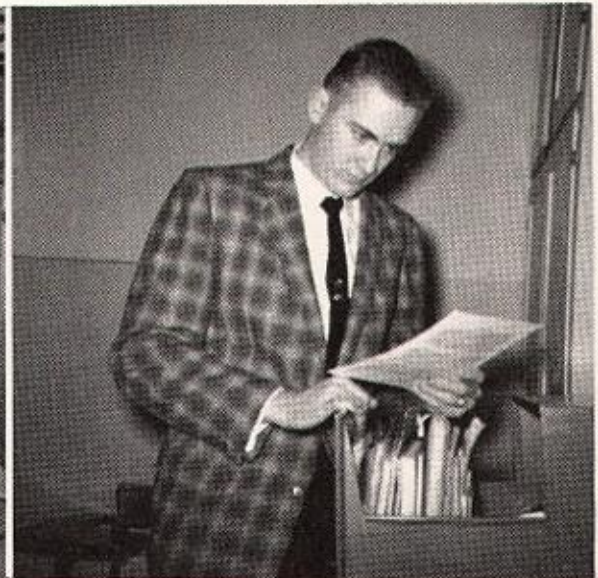

Thanks, from all of us to all of you.
